Sandy Phillips

Coach William Glesing brings successfully to a close his second season at Warren.

Honey-blonde Sandy Phillips, senior, is all smiles after having been crowned track queen.

CINDERMEN TAKE COUNTY TITLE

Track records fell right and left as the Warriors enjoyed a strong season. Top team honor was the winning of the Marion County Championship after having not seen it for two years. This was the tenth such victory in twelve years.

John Prickett heaves the shot home in a top-notch performance.

Bob Houston, David Oertel, Jack Bartholomew, and Eddie Lechner, winner of the annual Kiwanis Award, displayed the kind of effort at the Columbus Relays to win the mile relay as well as to establish a school record of 3:34.4. Their time of 3:35.2 is a new high for the local oval, too.

Oertel placed fourth in the mile at the Sectional meet.

Don Kassen soars over the crossbar in a practice run.

COUNTY CHAMPS

440—Bob Houston.....51.6
Ed Lechner.....54.2
Shot Put—John Prickett.....45′ 9″
Pole Vault—Bob Arnold.....10′ 10″
High Jump—Darrell Jacobs.....5′ 11½″
(Holds school record—6′ 5⁄8″)
(Holds track record—5′ 10¼″)
Mile Relay—Lechner, Oertel,
Bartholomew, Houston 3:41.8

Bob Houston demonstrates the technique that made him lead in the 440-yard dash at the Sectionals. His time, 51.3. He had run it earlier in 50.7 to boost the school and track records. Bob was recipient of the Walter L. Mowrey Award.

In a hard-fought season with only four victories chalked up, the Warriors found solace in drubbing Howe for the first time in their baseball rivalry.

The entire squad worked hard with the sophomores demonstrating terrific talent. Ronnie Mitchell pitched the bulk of the Howe game, while he and two other sophomores, Ronnie Faulkner and Bill Darosett, belted in three of the four homeruns of the season. The other homer was collected by Harry Hurt at a strategic point with Broad Ripple, driving in four runs. But the Rockets were too powerful.

B. Yarbrough

Ronnie Hartman proved to be a fine regular pitcher and Larry Minnich catcher until a head injury during the county tourney prevented Minnich from finishing the season.

Terry Hatcher was elected captain while Alan Sanders was named most valuable player for the Kiwanis Award.

PUBLIC VIEWS CLASSWORK

An outgrowth of the annual math-science exhibit was Project Night, during which all departments displayed results of their daily classwork. Attendance was heavy with Science Club members as tour guides. Visitors expressed much appreciation for a chance to see the many aspects of the school in operation.

Chemist Manuella Dunham conducts a routine experiment.

Enthralled spectators take in every move as Mr. William Lowes wields a handy scalpel.

Excellent food and fellowship assured the eleventh annual Public Relations Dinner, sponsored by the journalism department, success. More than 150 guests attended, representing local industry, press, radio, and television, education, the ministry, parent-teachers association, and various other service and governmental groups.

The dinner is the only one of its kind in the state.

Speaking for the evening on "The Publics We Serve" is Dr. I. Lynd Esch, president of Indiana Central College.

P. R. DINNER MAKES FRIENDS

Going through the cafeteria line are (from right) Mr. Donald B. Davidson, trustee, Mrs. Davidson, and Mrs. Lourene Dodson.

County quiz champs Phil Vincent, Carolyn Michel, Patty Brier, and John Sare feast eyes on the Quiz 'em on the Air trophy following their fifth and final victory. Defeated by Warren were Cathedral, Ben Davis, Manual, St. Agnes, and Shortridge, last year's champions. Twenty-seven schools participated in the quiz contest sponsored by The Star and Station WIRE.

Fans scream their delight as the Warren team wins in a sudden-death overtime at Shortridge.

WIN COVETED QUIZ TROPHY

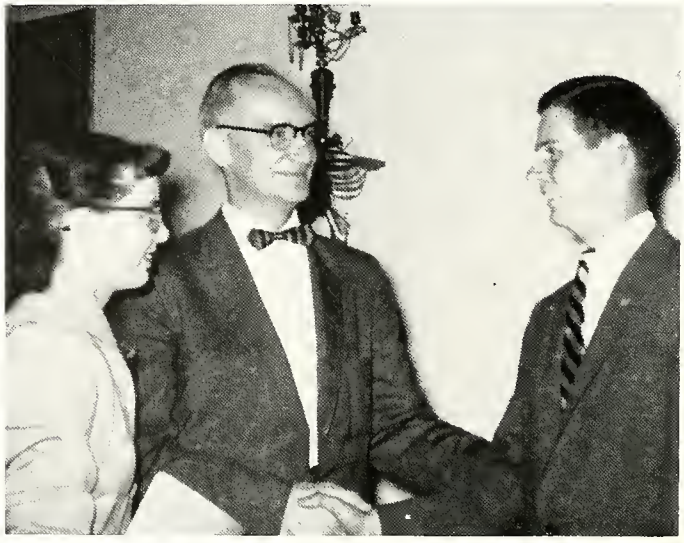
Quiz Coach Herrick H. Kesler and Principal C. E. Eash fondle the twenty-volume set of Collier's Encyclopedias, which was part of the reward for the year-long cramming.

Sharon Binnion, not pictured above, was the team's alternate.

A modern contrivance mars the authenticity of this shot at the Latin department's annual Floralia. Janet Williams of Queen Marilyn Limbach's court waits as King Larry Grabhorn proclaims Floralia Day.

LATINS STAGE FLORALIA

Mr. Fred Rodebeck returned to Warren as an administrative assistant after a three-and-a-half year absence. Formerly dean of boys, he is in charge of transportation, assists in attendance, and various other administrative functions.



Phyllis Reilly and Alan Sanders are congratulated by Mr. Wallace Sims of the Christian Men Builders upon being awarded the Merle Sidener Journalism Awards at the Hotel Warren.

'THE FORTUNE TELLER'

Sixty-five vocalists of the music department took parts in Victor Herbert's operetta, "The Fortune Teller," which attracted large audiences at both afternoon and evening performances.

Sandor, Richard Hedrick, serenades his "little gypsy sweetheart."

Musette, Sharon Wells, finally marries her lover.

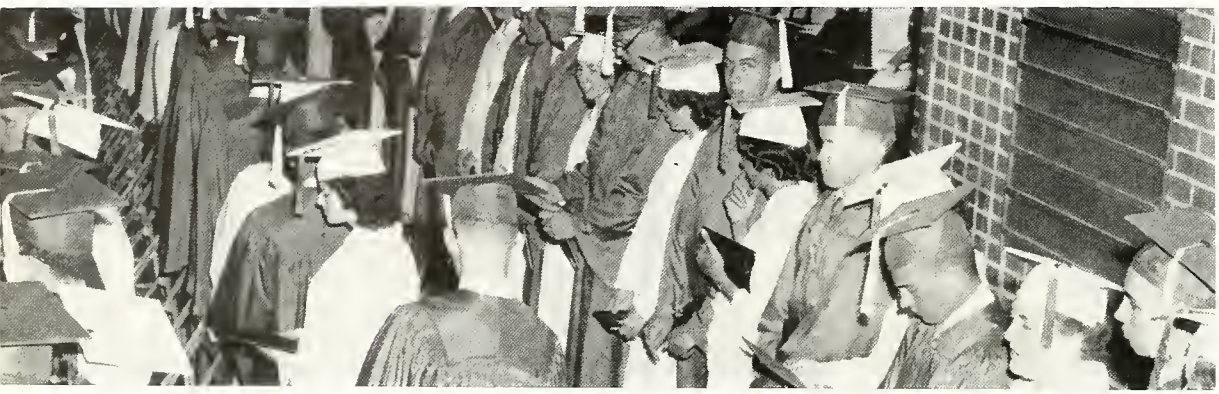
164 EARN DIPLOMAS



With mixed emotions, graduates discreetly examine diplomas.

Mr. Lloyd Fleetwood, assistant county superintendent, extends to Paul Wright his diploma as he beams with pleasure. Mr. Eash and Mr. Davidson await next graduate.

The end to days at Warren heralds a new life.

Owl Goes

This is the story—the living story—of the guys and gals who make Warren Central.

Our school life seems to be in sections, so to speak: the underclassmen, anxiously awaiting the time when they will be seniors; the sportsmanship and hard play; the organizations in which they work; and, in short, the things we like. But each section is only a phase of the overall program aimed at preparing us for what's ahead.

So this is our presentation to YOU—your story—your year at Warren Central . . .

An exciting, indispensible part of every Warrenite's school life is the afternoon of Owl circulation, the time when all eyes search out familiar names and faces in the paper.

The results of the newspaper's influence and the enthusiasm of the staff for their "pet" were demonstrated at the beginning of the year when students and teachers on their way to school met an impressive new spotlight at Tenth Street and Post Road.

The Owl had begun a vigorous campaign for the signal two years before as a result of several accidents at the corner. Later, others joined the "crusade."

To Allan,
A really neat
guy. Best of luck
to all you do.
Joanne Sykes

Weekly 31st Year

Fulfilling a long-existing need, The Owl joined the ranks of three other local high school weeklies on November 1. As a streamlining measure, the paper was reduced in size to almost half.

Kitty,

My dear little father - Allan you don't realize just how much you have done for me. I've been what you call down in the dumps this year a lot of the time - when I see you, you have that winning smile that would make anyone feel good. You've had your share of troubles too. We've been able to talk things out and it's done wonders. As I told you, your words weighs with me. You've got a brilliant head on your shoulders and have certainly put it to wonderful use. In the future you've got a lot to look forward to and a wonderful outlook in store for you - You are certainly wished the best. Not only by me but mom and dad too - You've made a hit with all us kids parents - That counts a lot doesn't it. It does to me. Kiddo about Sharon I have no motherly advice to give! I think you are a sweet couple but can't say whether you were meant for each other or not. Just can't figure it out - Hope you don't care about my writing so much - this is just how much you mean to me - I hope that next year neither of us have so blasted many troubles to discuss and cuss - Oh well Kitty next year is it - I feel after that time I won't see you much but hope that isn't so - I admire you in every respect - You're tops -

Love -

IN KIND REMEMBRANCE OF
GEORGE D. KEEVER

To say he was entirely devoted to his duties as a teacher is to overlook his love for his family. To laud his capable and untiring efforts as a professional is to underestimate his "outside" interests and pursuits. To credit him with almost 25 years of teaching at Warren is to exclude the thousands of evening and weekend hours he gave without complaint.

Whether it was an all-school musical, a game, or a P.T.A. meeting, Mr. Keever could always be relied upon for special lighting, sound equipment, or electrical repairs. Through his pioneering, the audio-visual aids program grew to tremendous proportions in its value as an educational device. Without his assistance in photography, Warren's publications would have suffered immeasurably. We shall miss him.

Lady Godiva wouldn't stand much of a chance in this day and age—and Faye Hoppes shows why.

"The less there is the less I have to comb," is Jack Bartholomew's point of view. The "Hollywood Burr," featuring a wave or a dab of curls in front was the favorite among the stronger sex.

FADS FROM HEAD TO FOOT

Feet can tell the story of the varied school day, too.

Oysters had a rough year since rope pearls became the leading accessory. The longer Margie Askren's beads were the more stylish she was. Although some were worn loose, most of the girls preferred to wear them knotted.

SPECIAL PERSONS AND PROJECTS

Gossip prevails, as usual, in the ladies' circle. Sally Beese and Maryrose Warren are giving their moms the low-down at the annual Mothers' Valentine Tea.

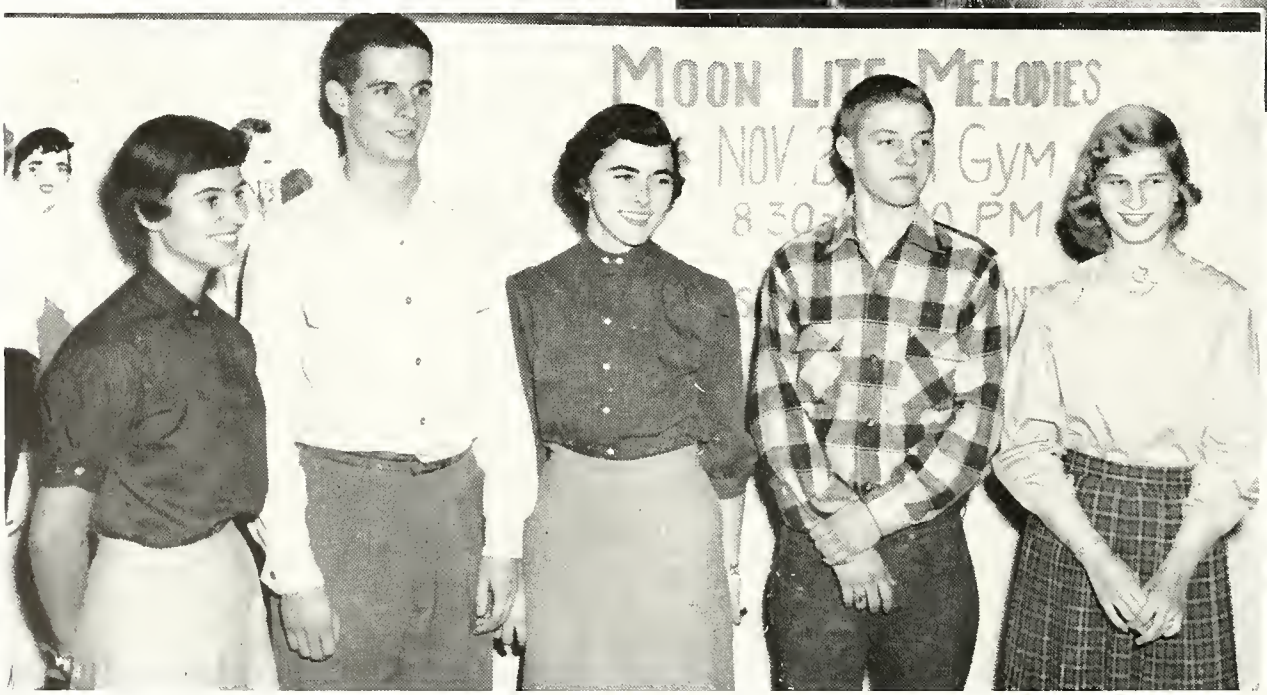
ENLIVEN WORKDAY

Miss Ellen Fanous is a teacher of English as a foreign language in Shrbu Secondary School in Cairo, Egypt. She visited Warren for five weeks to become acquainted with stateside teaching methods. She made several talks, being very popular with the student body as well as the faculty.

At Christmas time the dance was the highlight of the holiday season.

(Above) Mr. and Mrs. Snowman beam with joy as Jeannine Ramsey and Wesley Boyce discuss their plans for the evening with them.

(Right) It seems as though the Christmas tree has caught the eyes of Bill Yarbrough and Carolyn Robinson at the dance.



The first semi-formal dance was Moon Lite Melodies. Vying for Mr. Sandman and Miss Stardust were Barbara McConnell, Alan Sanders, Myrna Robertson, Bob Clay, and Sandy Phillips. Sandy and Alan reigned over the dance for the evening.

The Dorseys have nothing on Warren this year. The Down Beats rocked their way right into the hearts of the student body when they played for their dances.

DANCING FEET RELEASE ENERGY

ABC's were taught in a new manner this year — by the "ABC Boogie." Bill Haley and all the other pop singers hit the jack-pot on the juke-box at the sock-hops.

The NATIONAL BETA CHAPTER is a comparatively new girls' service club with membership open to junior and senior girls who come up to certain standards of achievement, service, and character. The club co-sponsored school convocations, Sadie Hawkins, Christmas, and Spring dances.

The officers were: Monteen Johnson, Judy Atkinson, Arlene Hughes, Donna Myers, Donna Jo Scotten, Marianne Thompson, and Jeannie Miller. Sponsor is Mrs. Harold E. Rodden.

GROUPS PERFORM MANY

This was the first year that the WARRENETTES were active as a sophomore service group. Working hand in hand with its big sister, the National Beta, it helped in sponsoring the annual Valentine Tea.

Officers were: Linda Prosser, Katy Combs, Jeannine Ramsey, Dee Loux, and Joy Albus, and Judy Limbach, not pictured. Mrs. Rodden is sponsor.

ALPHA HI-Y officers, sponsored by Mr. Clevenger, were: Jim Windle, Larry Miller, Ed Lechner, Alan Sanders, and Ronnie Hargrove.

HELPFUL DUTIES

Many good services have been performed by the ALPHA HI-Y (above) this year, one of them being giving canned foods to a needy family. They also boost the National Beta in co-sponsoring the Christmas dance and the spring dance.

Selling cokes at the games was one of the projects of the BETA HI-Y, freshman and sophomore boys' service club. They also conducted a church-attendance survey.

Sponsored by Mr. Dinn, officers were: Fred Brewer, Bob Ostheimer, Bill Weesner, Ronnie Mitchell, Dick Gardner, and Bob Armstrong.

FRESHETTES, a freshman girls' service club organized this year, sponsored most of the freshman activities such as the get-acquainted party and the freshman Christmas party. Mrs. Middleton was the sponsor.
Officers were: Sandra Powell, Ann Burk, Dee Ann Tombo, Margaret Huntsinger, Pat Yotter, and Linda Boatsman.

4-H JUNIOR LEADERS sponsored a Hallowe'en party at Cumberland, helped enroll 4-H members for this summer's work, and kept the students and parents of Warren Township informed of the 4-H Club programs. Sponsored by Mrs. Stricker, the officers were: Marjorie Hipkiss, Gary Bristow, Bill Harshbarger, Carolyn Schwier, Marjorie Chappell, Mary Frances Wilkerson, and Charles Turner.

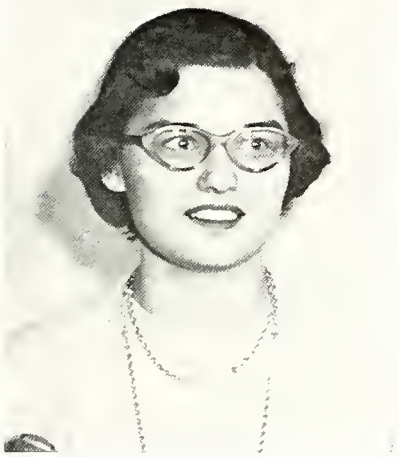
The JUNIOR RED CROSS, under Mrs. Dodson, their new sponsor, had many projects. They prepared a dinner for the county officers and representatives, filled gift boxes, helped fill an overseas chest, made party boxes, place cards, and scrapbooks for the Veterans and Riley Hospitals. Officers were: Judy Albus, Jayne Edwards, Jerry Voyles, Jim Bruhn, Bill Weesner, Sue Fox, and Bruce Hensley.

The officers of the SENIOR HI-C were: John Kester, Arlene Hughes, Alan Burt, Judy Albus, Jim Barnes, Sharon Binnion, Richie Cowan, Dorothy Robertson, and Judy Cooley (inset).

'ICE CLUBS RANK HIGH

Officers of the JUNIOR HI-C were David Krentler, Trent Anderson, Bob Ostheimer, Steve Pyritz, and Dick Meyer.

The JUNIOR and SENIOR HI-C CLUBS were sponsored by Miss Kinnison. Their visitation committees, taking small gifts and favors that they made, went to Pleasant View and the Evangelistic Home for the aged. The members and invited guests saw a Christmas and an Easter movie, and the club heard several outstanding speakers.



(Above) Monteen Johnson, senior, was student delegate to the UNITED NATIONS. She spoke to several groups in Marion County of her experiences in New York City.

(Below) DIARY KEEPER Vernice Schaekel, senior, recorded the events of the school year. The record is stored in the main office.

REPRESENTED WELL BY CHOSEN FEW

BUS CAPTAINS were: Noah Stoghill, George Vansickle, Donna Druding, Betty Irwin, James Spilker, Carolyn Hendricks, Lois Troncin, Phil Vincent, Harry Shaw, Larry Holden, Janet Bless, Ruth Jensen, and Vernice Schaekel.

Junior high STUDENT COUNCIL officers were: Gary Wetherald, Mike Tucker, Laura Irwin, and Jim Writt. They worked with the senior high council as well as mailed Owls to alumni in the armed forces. Sponsor, Mr. Hamilton.

COUNCILS PLAN MANY SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL representatives were elected from each of the homerooms. They sponsored the Moonlite Melodies, semi-formal dance, last fall and the sock-hops after the ball games. This group, sponsored by Mr. Hamilton, also presented the United Nations assembly. Senior high officers were: Jeannie Miller, Carolyn Michel, Pat Kenley, and Jim Windle.

BAND COUNCIL members Gary Gray, Fred Cutler, Jack Little, Dave Krentler, and Judy Miller admire the new bass drum. Sponsor, Mr. Havens.

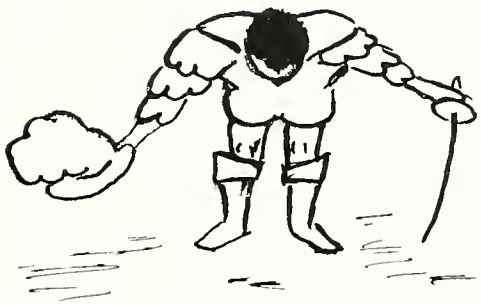
ORCHESTRA COUNCIL members were: Forrest Simmerman, Jeannie Miller, Linda Palmer, Tyrll O'Neill, Rebekeh Randall, and Sara Carter. Sponsor, Mr. Snavely.

The SENIOR HONOR SOCIETY undertook a tremendous project this year in trying to inform parents and others in Warren Township about our schools, enrollment, buildings, and the expected building needs. They had their annual induction ceremony and picnic. The officers were: Joyce Foreman, Barbara McConnell, Jim Walter, and John Sare. Mr. Thompson was sponsor.

THOSE WHO STRIVE TO

QUILL AND SCROLL is the international honor society for high school journalists. The chapter celebrated its Silver Anniversary this spring. One of the services the club performed was to put out sports programs at some of the home ball games. They brought professional newspaper persons in to speak to the Journalism Department. Officers were: Sandy Phillips, Myrna Robertson, and Marilyn Strodtman. Sponsor was Mr. Kesler.

The JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY, sponsored by Mr. Cooper, sold United States savings stamps and had their annual induction and picnic. Officers were: Trent Anderson, Bill Darosett, Rita Tidd, and John Beaty.



ACHIEVE ARE REWARDED

ACCURACY CLUB is the club for second year typists who have typed five minutes without error. Sandra Thompson, Leda Pierce, Myrna Cochran, and Reba Perkinson, seniors, are the members with the highest speeds. Miss Hicks is sponsor.

MUSIC PLAYS A

BAND members really stepped high this year, sporting their new capes. Money for these capes was raised through the efforts of the Parent-Teachers Association, the Owl, and the band members themselves. This group entertained at various events: home football and basketball games and the Eastside Community Hospital ground-breaking ceremony. Other special activities included the County Band Clinic at Lawrence, Solo and Ensemble contest, and a trip to Elkhart.

Serving the school this year as they played for the Dramatics Club play and the annual mother and daughter Valentine's Tea was the ORCHESTRA. They were a part of the all-state orchestra, which performed before an enormous audience during the state teachers' convention. The group made guest appearances in Sullivan and Linton.

Majorettes: Dolly Rogers, Susie Perkins, Marilyn Haymaker, Harlene Privette, Judy Brier, Patty Brier, Polly Doorne, Joyce Maddox, Donna Jo Scotten, Kay Alspach, Sandy Smith.

BIG PART

DRAMATICS CLUB staged a play, skits, and pantomimes for programs, had movies on theatricals, a speaker from Civic Theater, took field trips to the Civic Theater and dramatic festivals in other schools, and had a party for its members. Officers were: Judy Miller, Jonell Koch, Sharon Wells, and Chic Hedrick. Sponsor was Miss Wagner.

MANY PURSUE HOBBIES

Every CIVIL AIR PATROL member holds a rank or title. They earn one credit a year through studying aviation subjects and theory of flight.

The C.A.P. members took a field trip to Allison's Weir-Cook Airport, and a flight at Sky Harbor Airport.
Sponsors were: Mr. Dinn, Mr. Turner and Mr. Jeffers.
E. Richter, N. Bussell, K. Tolsen, R. Askren, V. Edington, B. Strobel, P. Cordrey, J. Beaty, D. McClure.

The SPANISH CIRCLE is a club for anyone who is interested in the language and in furthering good relations between the United States and the Pan-American countries. Officers were: Charles Buchanan, Monteen Johnson, Jane Ross, and Arlyne Heckart.

THROUGH SCHOOL CLUBS

The PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB was small but indispensable. Two members, Jerry Grabhorn and Paul Wright, took shots for publications and others. They took pictures of the grade school classes in the township in order to be self sufficient. Sponsors were Mr. Keever and Mr. Qualls.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA, backed by local advertisers, distributed calendars to Warren Township families. They attended many field days and appeared on television. Officers were: Bill Shank, Sam Shank, William Harshbarger, James Ross, Gary Bristow, and Roger Myers. Mr. Hayes was sponsor.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA is a new club this year and started off with a bang. They sponsored a speaker for those interested in teaching as a career, National Education Week here, and presented a public address program. Some attended the state meeting in Bloomington. Officers were: Carolyn Michel, Arlyne Heckart, Sharon Wells, Carol Brunner, Anna Dell Dorn, Bill Miller, Larry Grabhorn and Sharon Binnion. Mrs. Siebert was sponsor.

LESSONS ARE TAUGHT

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA was sponsored by Mrs. Beeson and was headed by Gloria Carter. Other officers were: Anna Dell Dorn, Arlyne Heckart, Carolyn Michel, Vernice Schaekel, Janice Marshall, and Gail Tobias. They attended the district and state conventions, had a Christmas party, and the junior and seniors toured the home show while the sophomores visited President Harrison's home.

The DRIVERS' CLUB'S duty is to promote safe driving among teen-agers. During the year, this organization saw films and heard several law officers give their advice on safe driving. One of the projects of this group is to inspect cars for defects, as pictured. Officers were: Larry Miller, Faye Hoppes, Ronnie Hargrove, and Jim Windle.

BY EXPERIENCE

The GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION provides an outlet for much of the girls' extra energy. Some of the many sports they enjoyed were soccer, softball, basketball, swimming, and tumbling. The officers were: Carol Boyer, Ruth Jensen, Carolyn Michel, and Nikki Byard, the club being sponsored by Mrs. Huston.

The SCIENCE CLUB, in trying to promote interest in science, sponsored the showing of several industrial films, brought in science speakers, and sponsored an all-school convocation presented by General Motors. The officers were: Beatrice Crouse, Wesley Boyce, John Sare, and Herbert Mikels. Mr. Noe was the sponsor.

'YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH'

The job of the NEWS BUREAU is to send publicity of Warren to the city and county newspapers. They inform the people outside of our school of the various projects the classes and clubs sponsor. Advised by Mr. Kesler, the staff consisted of Beatrice Crouse, Phyllis Reilly, Donna Myers, and Gyneth Sprunger.

ADMINISTRATORS KEPT BUSY WITH PROFESSIONAL DUTIES

Awakening the public to the problems of a growing school population was the biggest headache this year to MR. C. E. EASH, principal.

Along with this project were many figures to be compiled, charts to be made, and panels and talks in which he and Mr. Donald B. Davidson, trustee, presented these facts to interested groups.

Reassigned as supervising principal of Warren Township, Mr. Eash's duties include not only the administration of Warren Central but also supervising the seven local grade schools.

As chairman of the Irvington Kiwanis Club's Vocational Guidance Committee, Mr. Eash was responsible for the publication of the booklet, "Be Ready to Meet Your Employer," which was compiled to present to east-side youth the qualifications that employers expect of them as well as the opportunities offered for jobs by local business and industry.

He has also served as president of the Schoolmen's Club and Secondary Principals Association of Indiana.

Mr. Eash is active in the Y.M.C.A., being a member of the board of management and the centennial committee.

Graduate work has been taken at Columbia, Purdue, University of Illinois, University of Chicago, and Butler University.

Familiar to all is the expression "Ask Mrs. Rodden. She'll know." And MRS. MYRTLE M. RODDEN, vice-principal and dean of girls, usually does know the answer to problems or where it may be found.

Keeping attendance office routine as well as cafeteria operations running smoothly are tremendous tasks, which she has performed well.

One of the high honors Mrs. Rodden has accomplished is that of being state president of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary organization for women teachers, for the past two years.

She is also civic and public relations chairman for the Marion County Classroom Teachers Association.

This year Mrs. Rodden fulfilled one of her fondest hopes. She was asked to collaborate with Dr. Clifford Froelich, University of California, in the revision of his college text, "Guidance Services in Smaller Schools." For years Mrs. Rodden has headed Warren's guidance program. Recently there was published in the Indiana Guidance Bulletin an article written by her about the school's guidance.

Whenever counseling with a boy, or even a girl, it's not unusual to find him with a friendly hand on his shoulder. MR. RALPH CLEVENGER, vice-principal and dean of boys, is always ready to listen and make suggestions. He has become a special friend of many. His guidance is not confined to the school, however, for he regularly teaches an adult Sunday School class with an enrollment of 325.

As chairman of the Committee of Management, East-Side District of the Y.M.C.A., he has been instrumental in the purchase of land near Tenth and Shadeland for the construction of a "Y" building. He is also active in the Central Branch of the "Y."

Before taking the position as dean of boys, he coached the Warriors' basketball team for fifteen years. He is a life member of the Marion County Coaches Association and a twenty-year member of the Indiana Coaches Association, being president of the local group four years.

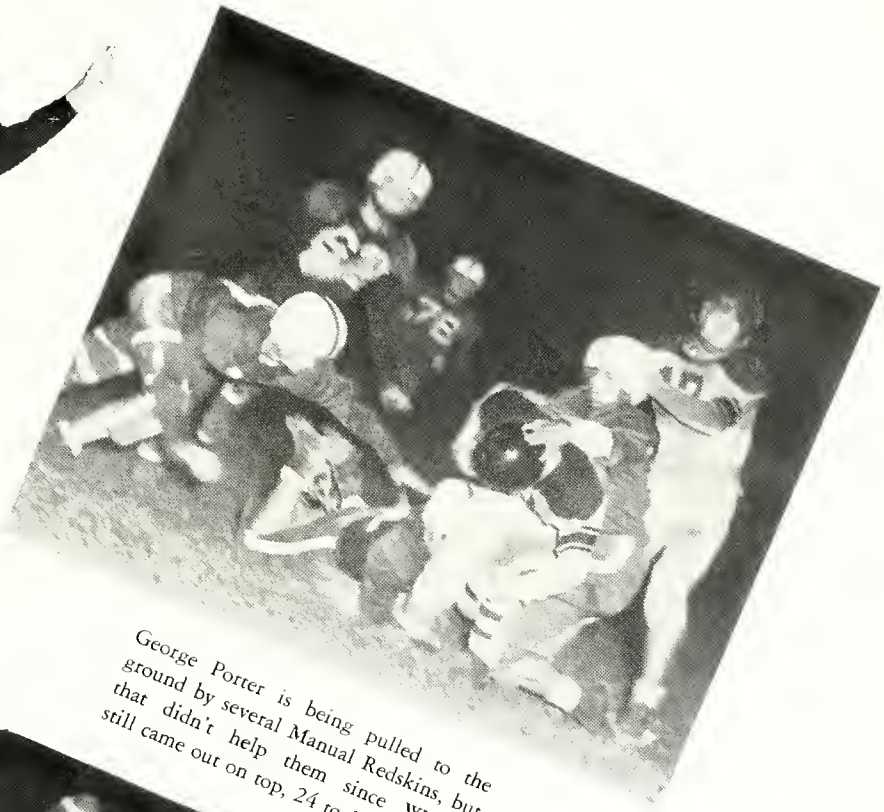
THE VARSITY CHEERLEADERS made a very fine effort in leading yells and stimulating enthusiasm at all the games. Martha Stroud and Anna Dell Dorn.



George Porter is being pulled to the ground by several Manual Redskins, but that didn't help them since Warren still came out on top, 24 to 13.

Jack Bartholomew and Bob Brinker defend against a pass thrown by the Greenfield Tigers. Warren romped over them, 31 to 0.

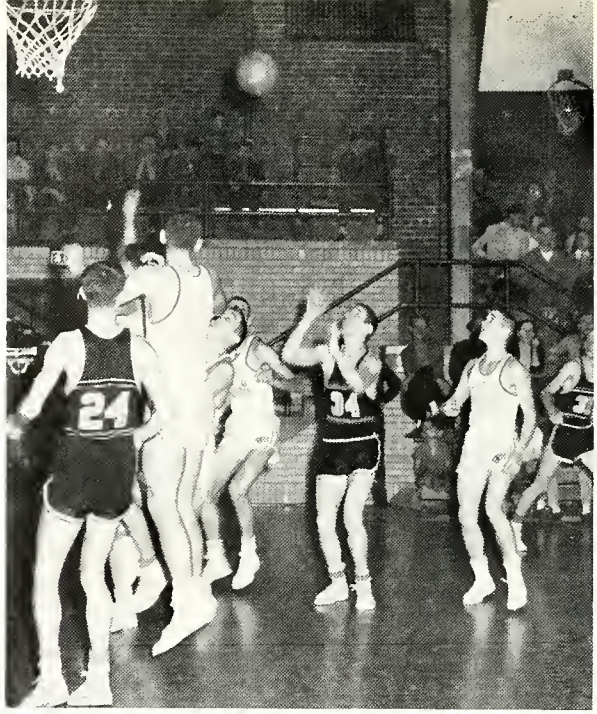
BOYS STRETCH FOR REBOUNDS

"Chuck" Marshall and "Chuck" Dorrel battle for the ball against Beech Grove.

Kenny Pennington tips in for two.

"Chuck" Dorrel and unidentified team mate vie for possession of rebound against Zionsville.

VARSITY CREW MIXES IT UP

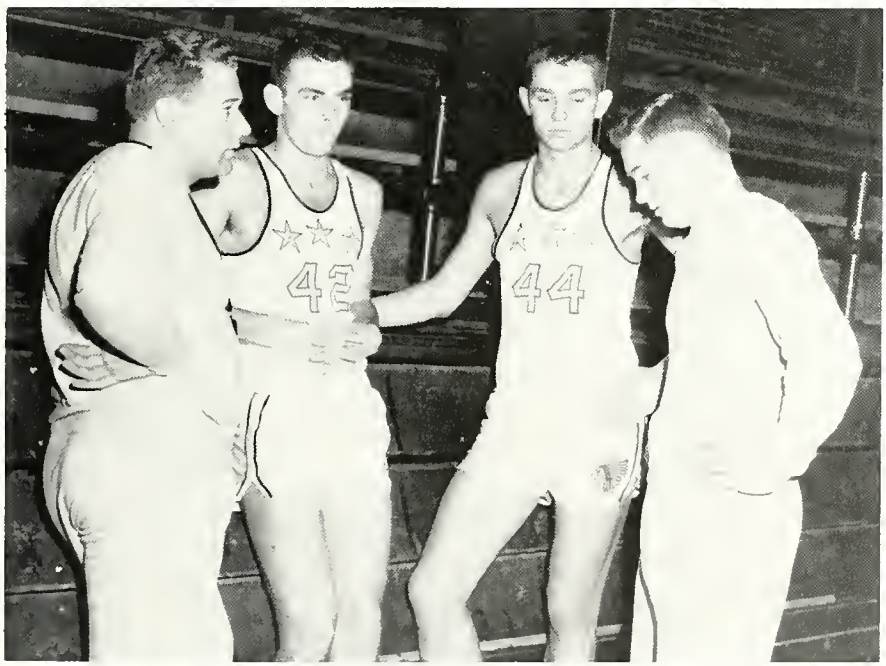


Bill Yarbrough, Kenny Pennington, "Chuck" Marshall, and Fred Horsley watch as the ball approaches the basket during the action of the Beech Grove encounter.

A lot of the taller boys wish they could jump as high as John Prickett! Here Prickett tries for a rebound as Bill Yarbrough looks on.

Not quite far enough, Bill! Pike will take the ball on this play.

"Is it in? No, it isn't! Yes, it is! Or is it?" Excited fans watch last-minute play of a very close game.



Varsity basketball Coach Bob Meyers and Assistant Coach Wendell Roberts talk over the strategy they will use in their next game. Yarbrough and Pennington listen attentively.

Two new coaches took over the basketball reins of the varsity and reserves. Mr. Robert Meyer, after being assistant for three years, moved up to the varsity, when Mr. Carl Braden went to Southport. Mr. Wendell Roberts is the new reserve coach.

Although the team compiled only a mediocre record, eight members were underclassmen.

New white uniforms were purchased as the "annual new apparel."

Three opponents from outside Marion County, not including Greenfield, were scheduled to complete a very tough array of foes.

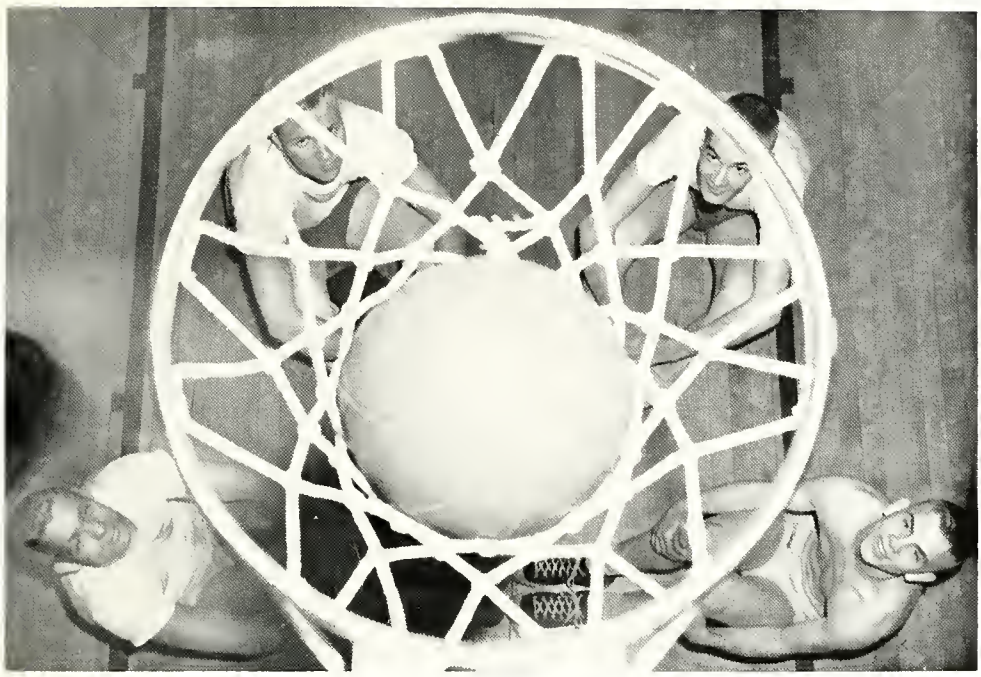
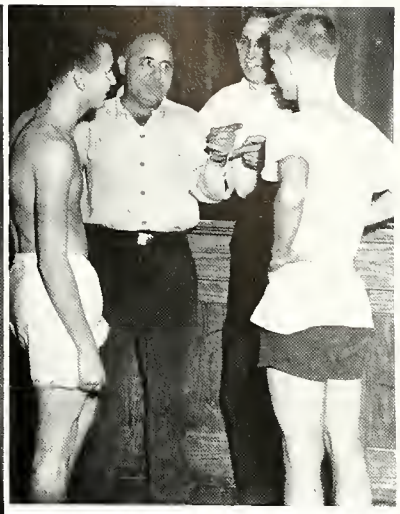
RESERVES MAKE STRONG SHOWING

Bob Wood and Alan Burt, student managers.

A G.A.A. basketball game with Beech Grove provided interesting scenery and entertainment for spectators. Judy Hardesty makes a pretty lay-up as Katy Combs makes a beautiful block.



The captains of Intramural teams of the "A" league are (lower left, clockwise) Alan Cole, Fred Paton, Bob Arnold, and Phil Biddle. Those not shown: Jack Bartholomew, Bob Houston, and Bill Miller.



"Get in there and go!" Mr. Nolte seems to be saying as David Reager, Mr. Glesing, and Bill French look on.

I–M'S PROVIDE ROUGH COMPETITION

Jan McCrory goes over Bill Miller's back for two points as John Sare comes in for a rebound.

Is it two? Leonard Price, Ed Lechner, Bill Miller and unidentified player are waiting to see if there will be a rebound.
